“Service Above Self” Award Nomination

The ‘Service Above Self’ Award was created in 1964 to recognize community individuals or organizations for their unwavering and dedicated service to the community. The award may be granted to any member/organization of the community. The recipient is one who seeks out service opportunities for service sake, displays high ethical standards, applies the ideal of service to all in which he/she is involved, and strives to achieve understanding and goodwill through his/her actions.

Nominations are due no later than April 15 of each year.
